ONLY WAITING.

[A very aged Christian who was so poor as t be in an alms-house, was asked what he was do ing now. He replied, "Only Warring."

Only waiting till the slindows Are a little longer grown; Only waiting till the glimmer. Of the day's last beam is flown Till the night of earth is failed From the heart once full of day;

Through the twilight soft and gray Only waiting till the renpers Have the last sheaf gathered home; For the summer time is faded, And the autumn winds have come Quickly, reapers, gather quickly For the bloom of life is withered,

Till the stars of Heaven are breaking

And I hasten to depart. Only waiting till the angels Open wide the mystic gate, At whose feet I long have lingered, Weary, poor, and desolate-Even now I hear their footstops, And their voices, far away :

If they call me, I am waiting, Only waiting to obey. Only waiting till the shadows Are a little longer grown; Only waiting till the glimmer Of the day's last beam is flown; Then from out the gathered darkness, Holy, deathless stars shall rise,

By whose light my soul shall gladly Thread its pathway to the skies.
